2. During November of this year four senior [REDACTED] representatives of the [REDACTED] organization will be in the United States as guests of this Agency. An official briefing and discussions of intelligence matters are scheduled for the group on Thursday, 13 November, in the Central Building Conference Room. Three of the visitors are senior administrative officials in [REDACTED]. We would appreciate your participation in a general discussion with these [REDACTED] staff members of personnel and training matters. The purpose of the meeting will be to stress the importance of recruitment of young personnel with diversified academic backgrounds and the establishment of career and training programs in a centralized intelligence service.
